Entrepreneurial Brunch

The rise of a township entrepreneur

On the 04 April 2018, Isaac Mavuso a facilitator speaker and Coach, the 2017 South African Men of the Year Award Finalist in the Entrepreneur Category will be hosting an Entrepreneurial Brunch at the Germiston Lapa in Ekurhuleni under the theme “The rise of a township entrepreneur” inspired by his upcoming book. This session will ignite the vision and challenge entrepreneurs to set goals for their business success.

The Brunch aims to inspire kasi entrepreneurs to become self-sufficient intentional and to play a pro-active role in pursuing business success, by recognising and taking advantage of government opportunities and other initiative that are geared towards supporting entrepreneurship in the country especially for the youth and women.

The vision is to provide kasi entrepreneurs an empowering tangible business development experience. We strive touch, awaken and inspire the rise of a township entrepreneurs as a seed towards entrepreneurial excellence one entrepreneur at a time. We seek to provide practical take homes to empower start-ups.

Kasi entrepreneurs are pioneers in the making confronted with continuous challenges on how to growth and manage their businesses successfully. Most start-ups cannot afford to attend empowering workshops and seminars which take long hours and are usually expensive for financially challenged entrepreneurs. Knowing that the key to business growth and success is information and knowledge of the resources and how to access them and the power of networking. Making this Brunch a must attend event.

The brunch is targeting entrepreneurs from in and around Ekurhuleni with newly registered business or operational businesses that are struggling to grow including aspirering entrepreneurs and co-operatives. We are having maximum of 150 people commitment fee R 350
